Duckie- Bio- Nov 2017

Australian born Nyadak "Duckie" Thot was born to South Sudanese parents, and is proudly represented in Australia by Chadwick Models.

Discovered by a model scout at a Shopping Centre in Melbourne, Duckie was urged to cast for Australia's Next Top Model (ANTM). At the time she was too young, but after turning 16, she decided to enter the next series she could.

Accepted on to Series 8, ANTM saw her gain a fierce and loyal following of fans Australia-wide, and Duckie was placed 3rd in the series. After graduating from ANTM, her first runway gig saw her walking for the iconic David Jones Fashion Launch SS16.

She was soon placed in New York and the international journey began. Since landing in NY she immediately caught the attention of major global creatives including Pat McGrath, Rhianna and Yeezy.

Duckie went on to attract attention of the highest levels of the Fashion World quickly becoming one of the most recognised faces in the industry with a Social following that has true global reach and engagement.

Recent work is a CV of incredible achievement:
